A song about him.

Dave remembered their first kiss. It was so sloppy. They were both drunk off their asses, and high too. Soon after that they fell asleep together, on Cliff's bed. Cliff didn't even remember it the next morning.

Then later, when he got kicked out of the band Dave remembered how he had looked at Cliff, pleading, begging with his eyes. Cliff had barely winced. He'd let it happen. He'd made it happen.

Then it was over. Cliff was gone without ever hearing what Dave wanted to say, needed to say.

"In my hour of need. Hah! No, you're not there."
